MEET THE BOSS!

Find out everything you ever wanted to know about the head of Monsters, Inc but were too afraid to ask!

Name: Henry J Waternoose
Distinguishing features: six legs, multiple eyes
Job: Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Monsters, Inc
Career: he's the third generation of Waternooses to run the company. He took over from his father when he was only 142 years old! Waternoose was a well-respected Scarer in his time on the scare floor – he invented the world-famous "Ol' Waternoose Jump and Growl" move. At school, Waternoose was always Captain of the Scare Squad, which definitely helped his career in scream collection.
Likes: his job as CEO, and the firm's top Scarer, Sulley
Dislikes: the Child Detection Agency (CDA), scream shortages and paperwork
What frightens him? Human children becoming more and more difficult to scare – and the fact that Monsters, Inc is having to resort to increasingly desperate measures to collect scream power.

MONSTER QUIZ

Test your knowledge of Monstropolis's finest with these quick questions

1 Which of the Scarers pictured collects scream power from Boo?

2 Who is Mike's flatmate?

3 Which famous scary move did Henry J Waternoose invent?

4 What do the initials CDA stand for?

5 What is Sulley's full name?
